Dear Lowell:

Your letter of September 19 was awaiting me when I returned from a lengthy world trip. STAT

I would be very pleased to meet [redacted] Card and suggest that he call my office or drop me a line to arrange a definite date and time.

Unfortunately, I was out of the country at the time of the Convention, but Stan Grogan saved me a copy of the speech you mentioned. * I'm quite favorably -impressed with it.-

Many thanks for your letter and my best wishes always.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

P.S. * Tom's speech was one of his best. I had a great trip -- 35,000 miles - around the world -- 25 countries visited.
